Illustrated Catalogue (One Plate), Price 6d.

Printed by J. DAVY & SONS, LTD., 8-9, Frith-street, London, W.1, England.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If at the expiration of one week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained, or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

other Proprietors and promising that any play of Shakespeare's which is, or which shall be hereafter, out of print, shall be reprinted without delay. This is followed by a warning against the Shakespeare piracies of R. Walker.

- 47 STERNE (L.) A Sentimental Journey through France and Italy. By Mr. Yorick, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION, with the half-titles, panelled red morocco, g. e. by Rivière + 28
(6 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ in.). for T. Becket and P. A. De Hondt, 1768

 Bound up in this copy between the title and the list of subscribers is a leaf of "Advertisement" in which the author promises the delivery to subscribers of another two volumes delayed by ill-health. This leaf does not form part of a gathering, and it seems probable that it was sent out loose with subscription copies and was never intended to be bound with the book. IT IS EXTREMELY RARE.

- 48 [STERNE (L.)] A Sentimental Journey through France and Italy, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION, a few leaves at end of vol. II wormed, original calf, 1768; Yorick's Sentimental Journey, continued. To which is prefixed, some Account of the Life and Writings of Mr. Sterne, original calf, 1769 (4)

- 49 Stirling (William Alexander, Earl of) The Monarchicke Tragedies. The third Edition, title and one or two leaves neatly repaired, red morocco gilt, g. e. by F. Bedford, Huth bookplate W. Stansby, 1616

 The Bindley copy had a small print of the author which is not in this copy. It is of extreme rarity and only about three impressions are said to be known.

- 50 STODDARD (S.) The Safety of Appearing at the Day of Judgement, in the Righteousness of Christ: opened and applied. By Solomon Stoddard Pastor to the Church of North-Hampton in New-England, sig. A 7 slightly defective, rust-hole in P 6, title and some leaves somewhat stained, crushed brown morocco Boston, Printed by S. Green, 1687

 In most copies the imprint is "Boston, Printed by Samuel Green, for Samuel Phillips, 1687." In this the imprint in its shortened form is impressed from a wood-block and not from type. Only one other copy with the title in this state seems to be known, the Prince copy in the Boston Public Library.

- 51 Suckling (Sir John) Works containing his poems, letters and plays, portrait, LARGE PAPER (8 $\frac{2}{16}$ in. by 5 $\frac{3}{8}$ in.), old red morocco, panelled sides, gilt back (joints repaired), g. e. Mexborough bookplate for J. Tonson, 1709

52 TAYLOR (J.) THE CHANSONNIER DE LABORDE,

Sold by Order of the Marquis de Laborde.

- $500

- 222 CHANSONNIER. A COLLECTION OF MEDIEVAL CHANSONS WITH MUSIC THROUGHOUT. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 128 ll. (and 21 ll. blank except for the ruling), BEAUTIFULLY WRITTEN IN A VERY NEAT POINTED BÂTARDE HAND; ON MOST PAGES AN HISTORIATED INITIAL, many of them containing heads or sometimes full-length figures of men and women in the dress of the period; most of the pages with part border decoration of flowers and fruit; in the margin of five leaves a coat-of-arms (azure, between three martlets argent a chevron or); on the blank leaf at end of the index is the name "Louye Teiller" (presumably an early owner) in a 15th or early 16th Century hand. OLD LIMP VELLUM BINDING in an 18th Century red velvet slip case with the arms on the side worked in silver thread of the MARQUIS JEAN-JOSEPH DORT DE LABORDE (1724-94) who amassed a great fortune in commerce at Bayonne and lent money to France in her financial difficulties during the Seven Years War. He was executed in April, 1794

8vo (127 mm. by 93 mm.) FRENCH. BURGUNDIAN. c. 1470

 THESE CHANSONNIERS, OR COLLECTIONS OF RONDEAUX AND BERGERETTES, ARE OF THE GREATEST RARITY. ONLY THREE OTHERS OF THIS DATE AND TYPE APPEAR TO BE KNOWN, ALL IN PUBLIC LIBRARIES: i.e. the Bibliothèque de ville at Dijon, the library at Wolfenbüttel in Brunswick, and the Royal Library at Copenhagen. These four manuscripts appear to be the only survivors of the chansons of this date and they form a group of which the editor of "Trois Chansonniers" (Introduction, p. 8; see below) remarks: "l'extérieur de ces quatre chasonniers presente un air de famille indeniable. Tous les quatre sont de petit format, écrits sur velin, et nous pouvons affirmer que la même main a copié ceux de Copenhague et de Dijon."

These charming little books had been very little studied and were almost unknown until the publication five years ago of the first part of "Trois Chansonniers Français du XVe siècle" edited by E. Droz (Documents Artistiques du XVe siècle. Tome IV, Paris, 1927), which reprints the first fifty chansons of the Dijon manuscript.

The present MS. comes easily second of the four in importance: it contains 105 chansons as against 158 chansons in the Dijon MS., 55 in that at Wolfenbüttel and 33 in that at Copenhagen. But it is especially interesting as including no less than 54 chansons which are not found in any of the other three MS.: also in the case of some of the chansons (see below) the name of the composer has been written in the top margin.

“ Et pourtant que de richesses dans ces deux cents chansons ! A l’amateur de musique ancienne et à l’historien elles offrent un vaste champ d’étude qui ne peut être comparé qu’ à celui des manuscrits de Trente ; les nôtres ont l’avantage de former, par la date de composition et par la matière, un tout homogène puisque, sauf de rares exceptions, toutes les pièces sont d’inspiration profane, d’origine française et postérieures à 1450.” Op. cit. Introduction, ix.

At the beginning of the volume is an index on five leaves followed by a sixth blank leaf which completes the first gathering. Folios 7-100 are occupied by chansons with their music, nearly every page being decorated with an historiated initial and part border ; folios 101-113 appear to be written by another scribe of the same date and are without decoration ; folios 114-134 are blank except for two leaves (ff. 119-120) which contain chansons without decoration ; the last fifteen leaves are mostly by the second scribe, though three pages are certainly by the first and have historiated initials and part borders.

The MS. appears to be complete except for five leaves. [Collation : A 6 ; B 8 ; C-D 6 ; E-V 8 :—B 1, D 2-3, H 3, T 1 missing].

The importance and interest of the composers’ names added to some of the chansons in this MS. are especially noted by the editor of “Trois Chansonniers.” Included among these attributions are the following, nearly all of Flemish origin. Six of these chansons do not occur at all in the other three MSS.

Folio 10B. Tout a part moy affin qu’on ne me voie. FRYE.

Folio 11B. Helas m’amour, ma tresparfaite amye. (This MS. only). CARON.

Folio 24B. Le corps s’en va et le cueur nous demeure. BUSNOYS.

Folio 25B. Malheureux cueur que vieulx tu faire. DUFAY.

Folio 27B. Quant se viendra au droit destraindre. BUSNOYS.

Folio 75B. Il ne m’en chault plus de nul ame. (This MS. only). OKEGHEM.

Folio 78B. Vostre regart si tresfort m’a feru. TINCTORIS.

Folio 141B. La saison en est ou jamais. (This MS. only). LOYSET COMPÈRE.

Folio 142B. Les grans regretz que sans cesse je porte. (This MS. only). HAYNE.

Folio 144. Plus qu’autre ay eu ma ioye dolloreuse. (This MS. only). PRIORIS.

Folio 146. Cest pour aymer que ie porte cest M. (This MS. only). PRIORIS.

Frye, Hayne and another composer whose name (slightly shaved) appears to be “Baziron” are unknown to Grove and other works of reference. The composers whose names appear seem to be chiefly members of the Netherlands schools which grouped themselves round Okeghem and Guillaume Dufay.

In connection with the Burgundian style of the MS. it is worth noting that at one time Dufay entered the service of Philippe le Bon, Duke of Burgundy, as music tutor to his son, the Comte de Charolais (afterwards Charles the Bold). Busnois has always described himself as "illustriſ comitis de Chaulois (Charolais) indignum musicum."

About 1446 Dufay was made Canon of Cambrai where he remained surrounded by such pupils as Loyset Compère, the latest composer represented in this MS., until his death in 1474.

The most probable attribution of the arms painted in several places appears to be to the family of Garnier, several members of which were noted as men of letters during the 16th and 17th Centuries.

The Chansons are almost all secular and written for three voices, and, perhaps, instruments, the upper part on the left-hand page and the Tenor and Counter-tenor on the right hand, in clear diamond-shaped notation on the five-lined stave.

The secular as opposed to the sacred music of this school has been very little studied owing to the excessive rarity of the original sources.

THE MS. IS ON THE WHOLE IN A VERY FINE STATE OF PRESERVATION. THERE SEEM TO BE NO AUCTION RECORDS OF ANY OF THESE BEAUTIFUL AND REMARKABLY INTERESTING LITTLE VOLUMES AND IT IS HIGHLY PROBABLE THAT THIS IS THE ONLY ONE THAT WILL EVER BE OFFERED FOR SALE.

My dear Wright

Thus does Hereward, the hero of our youth, reappear ^{at last} in such fit ~~the~~ present for a modern drawing-room. Whatever new credit he may win in this generation, will be mainly due to you. You first dis-interred him, many a year ago, when scarce a hand or a foot of his skeleton was left visible under the dust of ages.
You have since taught me how to ^{harness} his old rusty armor.
